FraggleSue's recommendation

Good Points

All winged and crawly bugs will stay well away!! An excellent repellent of all kinds!

Bad Points

No one, or anyone remotely sane, will come within a mile of you because you'll stink!

General Comments

Women seem to marinade themselves in this vile scent!

At first whiff this scent seems OK, if not a bit too sweet and sickly in a heavy heady sort of way, but then it starts to poison the respiratory system...death seems imminent, and actually quite welcome! I have had the displeasure of being in the same room as Thierry Mugler Angel perfume, and it was all I could do was not vomit from the migraine attack that it gave me, not to mention the asthma attack!! It should come with a health warning on the bottle!! I detest this perfume with a vengeance - it's OK ME not wearing it, but I wish people who wore it would stay away from me!!!! ARRGGHHHHHH!!!

FragranceX.com £8.12
