

PARABENS = CANCER

stepintomygreenworld.com

Research suggests that breast cancers usually develop in the upper-outer quadrant of the breast.

That area happens to be the closest to the lymph nodes exposed to antiperspirants.

PARABENS are chemicals used as preservatives in antiperspirants, cosmetics and sunscreens.

99% of breast cancer tissue had traces of PARABENS

facebook.com/stepintomygreenworld  pinterest.com/mygreenworld